Feel free to bring your own beads or pieces. They will be used when appropriate.

Jinny Goggin now lives in Paradise, that is Anna Maria Island. She moved here 8 years ago from New England and a career in computers. She learned to wire wrap jewelry here in Florida. Jinny also paints in watercolor and oil. Most afternoons you can find her sunning and swimming at the beach across from her home.

All three of her art forms are currently displayed at the Artist's Guild of Anna Maria Island.
